DETAILED ACTION

Remarks

1. Applicant filed a "Change of Correspondence Address" form on 03 JUN 2003 which was not processed until 5 NOV 2003. Consequently, the Final rejection mailed 14 AUG 2003 was sent to an improper address. The mailing address has been corrected in the database. Applicant claims the final office action was not received and filed a request to remail the final rejection on 30 OCT 2003. Accordingly, since Applicant timely filed a change of address yet the final rejection was not mailed to the proper address, the period for response to this final office action is restarted to begin with the mailing date of this final office action.
2. Applicant also filed an amendment on 7 NOV 2003 which amends claims 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6 and cancels claim 2. This amendment is improper and nonresponsive because it does not preserve the original numbering of claims (claims 3-6 should not be renumbered) and claim 1 contains amendatory subject matter which depends from claim 1. This amendment has not been entered. The final rejection therefore considers the amendment filed 3 JUN 2003 on the merits as set forth below.

Drawings

1. The drawing correction to Figure 1 filed 03 JUN 2003 is approved.

Specification

2. The abstract and amended title are acceptable.

3. The amendment filed 03 JUN 2003 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows:

a. The "cushioning effect" of the containing interior appears to involve new matter.

b. The metering mechanism divides the even mixed raw material equally appears to involve new matter.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Garms (US 1,198,209).

The patent to Garms (US 1,198,209) discloses a device including a housing 7 with feed means 12, 13; outlet/discharge means 15, 16; a plurality of gears/pinions 9 arranged axially and transversely in the housing forming the recited mechanisms; and suitable drive means (Col. 2, lines 56-59).

6. Claims 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as being anticipated by Mylo (US 3,266,430).

The patent to Mylo (US 3,266,430) discloses a device including a housing 12, 13 with feed means 20; outlet/discharge means 21; a plurality of gears/pinions (Fig. 2) arranged axially and transversely in the housing forming the recited mechanisms; and suitable drive means with a drive shaft 16 (Col. 1, line 72 through col. 2, line 1).

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 03 JUN 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim 2 was cancelled from the application and added only to the marked-up copy of claim 1 which is not examined. Accordingly, the clean copy of claim 1 which is now subject to examination (and ultimately printed in the patent if the application is allowed) is essentially the same version of claim 1 which was examined in the first office action and subject to the rejections under 35 USC 102(b). Since Applicant did not argue the merits of the 102(b) rejections, said rejections are repeated. The clean copy and marked-up copies of the claim (although no longer required pursuant to rule changes under 37 CFR 1.121) should agree and the clean copy version is the version that is examined. Any response to this final office action must comply with the revised amendment practice under 37 CFR 1.121 (see <http://www.uspto.gov/web/patents/ifw/> and the attachments included with this office action) or the response must be held nonresponsive.

The examiner advises Applicant to remove all occurrences on the new matter from the application (or successfully argue that such subject matter is supported). To define over the prior art, Applicant may wish to further define the intermeshing/non-intermeshing arrangement of the gears and the particular alignment of the gears as seen in the Figures (e.g., note the vertical alignment of the six gears 42, 41, 45, 46, 47, and 48 and all vertically adjacent gears intermesh while transversely arranged gears 41 and 44 are non-intermeshing). However, these or other such limitations will likely constitute new issues after final rejection which would preclude entry of any amendment including such changes.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
